Joint Board Meeting with Fremont-mills

Call meeting to order and determine quorum

Fremont-Mills President Elizabeth Alexander called the meeting to order at 7:04 p.m. Fremont-Mills Directors present were Elizabeth Alexander, Keith Barber, Samantha Wilson(left at 8:20 pm) and Darrin Mitchell. Fremont-Mills Director Eli Forney arrived at 7:15 p.m.

Sidney Directors present were Heidi Lowthorp, Alisha Ettleman, Erika Graham, Brad Johnson, and Larry Holt. Also present were Superintendent/7-12 Principal Gregg Cruickshank, Business Manager Jennifer Maher and Board Secretary Janet Lemrick.

Sharing Discussion

1) What opportunities/programs are currently shared between districts?

Mr. Christiansen led the discussion with information on what the two schools currently share between districts. Junior High/Senior High Instructors shared are Art, Vog Ag, Industrial Arts, Family Consumer Science. Administrations currently shared are Human Resource, Transportation, and Guidance.

Class offerings were compared between Fremont-Mills and Sidney and with schools whose enrollment would equal our districts should they be combined. The variety of classes offered by our districts were competitive with larger schools. Larger schools are able to offer classes more often during the school day.

It was noted that both districts are currently meeting or exceeding the state Chapter 12 guidelines for course offerings.

2) What opportunities/programs could be offered if the districts shared middle/high school?

It was thought that course scheduling might become more flexible if we districts combined. More students/instructors should allow to offer courses more often during the school day.

On-line/College credit classes also add a greater course selection to a student's schedule.

Public Discussion

There were approximately 15 community members in the audience.

It was thought that a community advisory/focus group comprised of both districts would be a next step should the districts want to pursue more options.

Other

Both Boards will further discuss how to proceed at their next regular meeting. Community members were encouraged to contact board members with thoughts and comments.

Adjournment

Motion to adjourn at 8:25 p.m. by the Sidney Board was made by Director Ettleman with second by Director Johnson. Motion carried. Ayes 5 Nays 0

SE - Tom Rembe/Seymour Board Member

Proposed Amendment to RSAI by-laws for consideration at July 2014 district meetings:

2/3 majority of district meeting voting participants is required for approval.

Membership:

Membership of RSAI shall be limited to School Districts with certified enrollments of 1,250 or fewer students.

Amend above to read: Membership of RSAI shall be open to School Districts in Iowa that share the values and mission of RSAI in advocating for students in rural schools to assure a fair, equal, and quality education. Affiliate membership is extended to other organizations/entities sharing the values and mission of RSAI, as approved by the RSAI Leadership group. Input from affiliate member organizations is valued but such organization participate as non-voting affiliate members of RSAI.

Dues:

Membership Dues shall be established each year at the Annual meeting of RSAI. Dues are payable upon approval. Dues shall be the same for all member school districts regardless of certified enrollment.

Amend above with the addition of: However, school districts engaged in whole grade sharing prior to the final year preceding reorganization may receive a discount of 25% each. Districts sharing in the final year prior to reorganization may each receive a 50% discount. In both cases, the two districts may determine the ratio of responsibility for payment.

Annual Meeting

All member School Districts shall gather annually in September. This meeting shall be known as the RSAI Annual Meeting. An Agenda of the Annual meeting shall be sent to all member school districts no less than 30 days in advance of the Annual meeting by the RSAI Leadership Group Chair.

Amend by striking "in September" and replacing with: as determined by the Leadership Group.

As amended, would read: All member School Districts shall gather annually as determined by the Leadership Group. This meeting shall be known as the RSAI Annual Meeting. An Agenda of the Annual meeting shall be sent to all member school districts no less than 30 days in advance of the Annual meeting by the RSAI Leadership Group Chair.

The following five DRAFT legislative Priority Issues were all selected as key priority issues at each of the four July Regional meetings. The Legislative Group worked carefully on this language as submitted to the RSAI members at the annual meeting.

Transportation Equity: Supports a mechanism that covers school transportation costs with state and/or local funding that does not unreasonably disadvantage property tax payers in property poor districts or compete with general funds otherwise spent on providing education to students.

PPEL Consistency: The repair of items allowed to be purchased with PPEL funds should also be an allowable PPEL fund expense.

Funding and Flexibility for At-risk Students: Resources for serving at-risk students should be based on need, such as the number/percentage of students eligible for Free and Reduced Price Lunch, rather than enrollment of the district. Districts should be given flexibility in determining the expenditure of at-risk resources to support students to graduate college/career ready for success.

State Supplemental Assistance 6%: RSAI supports a goal to get Iowa's investment in education to the national average. Iowa is now more than $1,700 per pupil below the USA average level of expenditure. Funding per pupil for the 2015-16 school year must be determined ASAP as the 2015 Session convenes and set at an adequate level, no lower than 6%. Per Iowa law, funding for the 2016-17 school year must be set within 30 days of the Governor's budget announcement in the 2015 Session. RSAI supports a per pupil increase for 2016-17 no lower than 6%.

Operational Sharing Incentives: Opportunities to achieve efficiencies, share capacity to operate, and redirect resources to educational programs, should be maintained and expanded to provide additional capacity to school districts to improve educational outcomes for students.

LOCAL AREA EDUCATION AGENCY

Superboard Meetings on School Finance/Advocacy

ISFIS has partnered up with your local AEA to bring you Fall Superboard Meetings. Without state cost per pupil set, managing several years of low budget growth, whether facing growing or declining enrollment, school board/superintendent/business manager teams need to understand financial drivers of the formula, analyze up-to-date district financial information and learn best practices to advocate both before and after the election and during the 2015 Legislative Session.

Attendees can expect district specific financials to review in the context of school finance basics and advocacy needed for sufficient state supplemental assistance decision in the first 30 days of the session.

Modern Learners and Modern Leaders: Decision Making for Schools in the New, Globally Networked World

Featured Speaker - Will Richardson, educational thinker, writer and change advocate

The web offers an easy connection to the people and resources we need to learn, whatever we want when we want. This challenges the fundamental beliefs that we held about teaching and learning for more than 100 years. As students graduate into a fast-changing, globally networked world, what assumptions do we need to reconsider about how to best prepare them? What new challenges do we have to overcome to make sure the idea of school remains relevant in the networked world in which our students will live? This is a keynote speaker you won't want to miss!

Noon - Sit-down lunch included

Building School 2.0: Creating the Schools We Need

Featured Speaker - Chris Lehmann, founding principal of the Science Leadership Academy

With significant changes currently happening in the societal, economic, and technological landscapes, it's important to consider these questions: What is School 2.0? What are the educational and instructional beliefs and ideas that form it? How can we create schools that are engaging, caring and relevant places of learning for everyone involved? Chris will share his insights as a school leader who's making innovative change happen.

4 p.m.

Be the Change You Want (To See) Within Your Schools

Featured Speaker - Shannon McClintock Miller, award winning teacher librarian

By building a team environment that includes school leaders, teachers, students, parents and others outside the four walls of the school, we all can work together to create change in our schools. With the power of collaboration, social media, creativity, technology and connections, we can make a significant difference. Shannon will be joined by students to tell their success story and inspire you to create change too!

What Can We Do?

A School Board Team Discussion Tool

Date updated: 02/04/14

Ontario Association of School Boards

Introduction

As a service on the IASB website, we offer this "At the Board Table" as a way for your board to have a 15-30 minute "board development" item on your agenda. Boards that take time to discuss current educational issues generally find their common work at the board table to be easier and more effective.

It's possible to consider this section as an individual board member, but it is much more effective if the entire board engages in the discussion. Working as a team is improved when boards come to a common understanding of ground rules and responsibilities.

If your board team conducts one of these discussions at your board table, each participant will earn three Better Boardsmanship points per session.

Next Steps for Meeting Facilitators

1. Add a development item to your next board meeting agenda.
2. Download or open the presentation from the website at the URL listed below.
3. Print out the handouts. Handouts #2, #4, and #6 should NOT be handed out until after the board discusses each Critical Question.
4. Consult with your superintendent about any local district information that he/she may have for you to distribute before you discuss Critical Question #2.
5. Conduct the exercise with your entire board.
6. Once you've completed the discussion, complete and return the form on the last page to receive credit for Better Boardsmanship points.

Presentation Details

Title: What Can We Do?

Web location:

<http://www.ia-sb.org/attheboardtable.aspx>

Handout #1: Critical Question #1

Can we really make a difference? What kind of impact can school boards really have on the legislative process? Isn't it all pretty "cut and dried" along party lines?

Handout #2: Practitioners' Views

"We can't just ignore the need to lobby. We are in this for the students. Whatever it takes to get them, whatever it takes to get them what they need, whether a legislator wants to listen us or not, we have to keep trying. I think of when the federal government put out the Iowa quarter (coin) and it said "First in Education" I was proud of that. I bet legislators were, too. We haven't kept up the pace. We need to give legislators something they can identify with, something about our kids and our district. We need to remind them, education is a part of our economic development, good schools can help draw families to Iowa. I think what we say, as board members, will eventually make a difference."

-Dale Kraayenbrink, Board Member, Sioux Center School District

"I understand the 'Why should I bother?' thinking, but I believe it results from complacency or misunderstanding. People's voices do matter. Legislators represent their communities and they do listen when people call or talk with them. School board members represent community values and community thinking and they need to express these ideas and ideals to legislators if we are going to have a better Iowa."

-Ralph Johanson, Board President, Davenport School District

"If the legislators don't know there are issues out there they will just go with what their gut tells them without the proper information. We all do that, we will all do what we think we ought to do unless information to the contrary is presented to us. Board members and superintendents can give information in terms of what is best for kids. It is important to keep trying. Passing the sales tax took us 10 years. But it happened and now we see benefits. Nothing is fast. You have to keep hitting the nail and eventually you will drive your point home."

-Robin Spears, Superintendent, Sheldon School District

Handout #3: Critical Question #2

There are lots of things we would like to say to our legislators! Some of us might differ on what the messages we take to them might be. But what can we upon as the one or two most important messages (in the best interests of our district) for our board to carry to the legislature at this time?

Handout #4: Practitioner's Views

"I believe, for the two boards I serve, the main focus has to be on setting allowable growth: on the legislature following their own law to set it in a timely manner. They have to do that so we can set our budget, without risking our fiscal health, and set it in a way that maximizes what is best for kids. To do that, we have to know what we are working with. Of course, we will also be closely following how administrative rules come down for operational sharing. We can live with what they set as long as they are consistent and fair. Again, don't blindside us; let's get these set so we can move forward in an intelligent and planned manner."

-Randy Collins, Superintendent,
Akron Westfield and West Sioux School Districts

"I would urge all school board members to talk to their legislators to make sure legislators focus on setting supplemental state aid/allowable growth. Setting the funding in a timely manner is required by law because of the need for school districts to conduct business. Schools need to know the amount of supplemental state aid/allowable growth when they develop programming, certify budgets, determine staffing levels, and conclude contract negotiations. This is critical. The Teachers Leadership and Compensation funds are only for compensation for newly created leadership positions. They should not be considered in place of, or in favor of, supplemental state aid/allowable growth."

-Katherine E. Schmidt, Board President, Norwalk School District

Handout #4: Practitioner's Views, continued:

"Certainly school aid is important before everything else; especially right now, when we are experiencing competition for state funds from both inside and outside education. It is easy for legislators to say "we are giving a lot to education" but they must fund the basics of education first. This is also true for AEA funding. AEA's exist to support local school districts but so much of our funding comes in silos. It is important to have some basic, non-designated, money to use to meet the varying needs of different school districts."

-Margaret Borgen, Board Member, AEA 11, and former Board President, Des Moines School District

Handout #5: Critical Question #3

What is a commitment to actual work that we will make as a board? What is one way each of us will agree to communicate our district's needs to our legislators? What are we willing to do to make that contact?

Handout #6: Practitioner's Views

"We need to communicate with our legislators. Figure out the way they will listen. With one of my legislators I e-mail and they respond. With the other, it takes a personal appointment and personal contact. Find out what they are thinking and then give them the facts. Talk about the good things that are happening for kids. Invite them to a school board meeting where they will hear from students. Figure out a way to enlist parents in the conversation. Our AEA has made sure they hear from the parents of the kids we serve. Attend legislative forums and interact with legislators, let them see your interest and your beliefs. Let them know what we need and why. Take advantage of IASB meetings. Most important, don't give up. We invited a legislator to a school board meeting last year and he 'stood us up' the next year we invited him again and he came. Don't stop trying."

-Lonny Morrow, Board member, Mount Pleasant School District and Board Member, Great Prairie AEA.

Handout #6: Practitioner's Views, continued:

"Whenever you are advocating, the biggest thing is to establish a personal connection. You actually have to attend those Saturday morning meetings in your local community when your legislator is present. You have to make the effort to get out there so your viewpoint is represented. Attend. Speak up. I have asked for cell phone numbers and when they give them to me I use them. When you call it is a personal approach. The process has to be driven by educated, respectful parties. I establish: you are my legislator, you work for me."

-Bob Steingreaber, Board Member, Van Buren School District

"There are two simple but important things to do:

1. Know your legislator. Cultivate your relationships before you ask them to do something. Get you and your board and your school district on their radar ahead of time.
2. Provide solid information they can depend on. Talk to them about why funding is needed, be specific, and give examples. Philosophical reasons are important but they need new and valid information to enforce or change their position."

-Margaret Borgen, Board Member, AEA 11, and former Board President, Des Moines School District

"A board member can be most effective as a spokesperson for public education by getting to know the legislators from their district on a personal basis. These personal contacts can help establish school board members as a key resource for information. Board members have the availability of a wealth of information from the Iowa Association of School Boards. I encourage the Cedar Rapids board members to take that extra step of making a trip to the capital to help solidify those relationships."

-David Benson, Superintendent, Cedar Rapids School District

A district may request allowable growth and supplement aid for a negative special education balance in the current school year. The supplemental aid payment will be calculated by the Department of Education after all special education aid has been distributed. It is important to note that a district may not have the ability to request allowable growth and supplement aid for a negative special education balance in the current school year if the district has a negative special education balance.

TARGETED TUITION REIMBURSEMENT

The Board believes the District, its patrons and students will benefit from having qualified teachers in its employ who qualify to teach dual credit coursework. In order to do so, the Board delegates to the Superintendent the authority to identify teaching areas where the District could utilize teachers able to teach dual credit courses and where such qualified individuals may not already exist.

In order to be considered for this program, a teacher must (in addition to other complimentary qualifications that Administration may from time to time identify):

2. Hold current licensure in the targeted discipline or related content area.
3. Obtain administrative approval.

Conditions of participation shall include (in addition to any further conditions that Administration may from time to time identify):

1. Identification of qualifying coursework hours to facilitate employment of the teacher by a cooperating community college.
2. Pre-approval of specific coursework and the deadline for completion of coursework with the Superintendent.
3. Successful completion of identified coursework per the timeline as established with the Superintendent and qualifying as a dual credit teacher.
4. Agreement to remain employed in the District for two years after completion of the coursework and receipt of the tuition reimbursement stipend. During which time the individual will perform assigned dual credit teaching assignments in the applicable content area as arranged by the District and its community college partner.

Benefit. Upon satisfactory completion of required coursework, qualifying and approved individuals will be reimbursed for actual tuition expenses incurred in an amount not to exceed $400 per graduate credit hour as approved by the Superintendent. To receive this benefit, selected individuals must submit receipts documenting tuition costs paid for applicable coursework.

If the affected teacher who received tuition reimbursement leaves employment with the District before completing the required time period for continued employment as set forth above or fails to complete required coursework after receiving partial tuition reimbursement, the individual agrees to repay the District for the entire amount of tuition reimbursement awarded.
